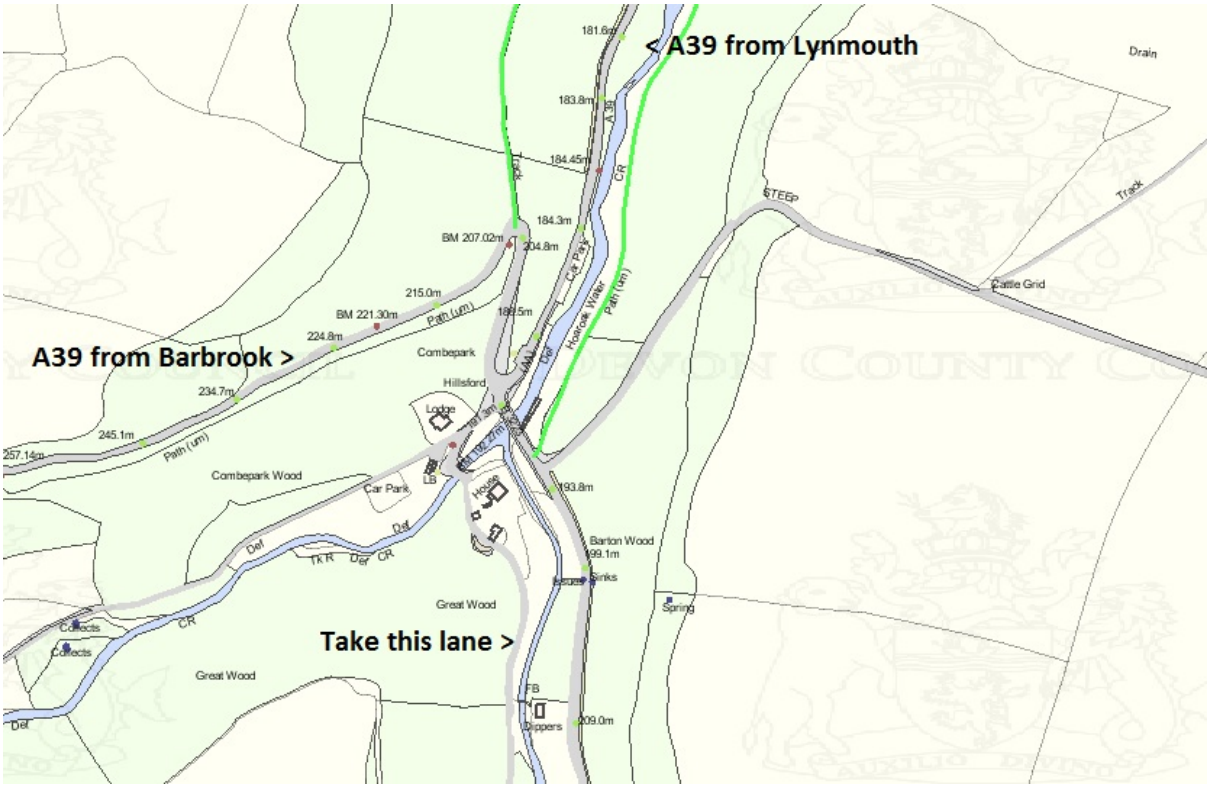
Map directions:

Find junction of the north end of the B3223 and A39 (Hillsford Bridge), 2miles south of Lynmouth . At the junction theres a turning to the SW, this is Cheriton Hill, immediately off to the right between stone pillars and about 50yds on is a NT car park. Please do not come and go to this car park after dark as the warden lives adjacent and has a very early start each morning, its fine to leave cars overnight though.



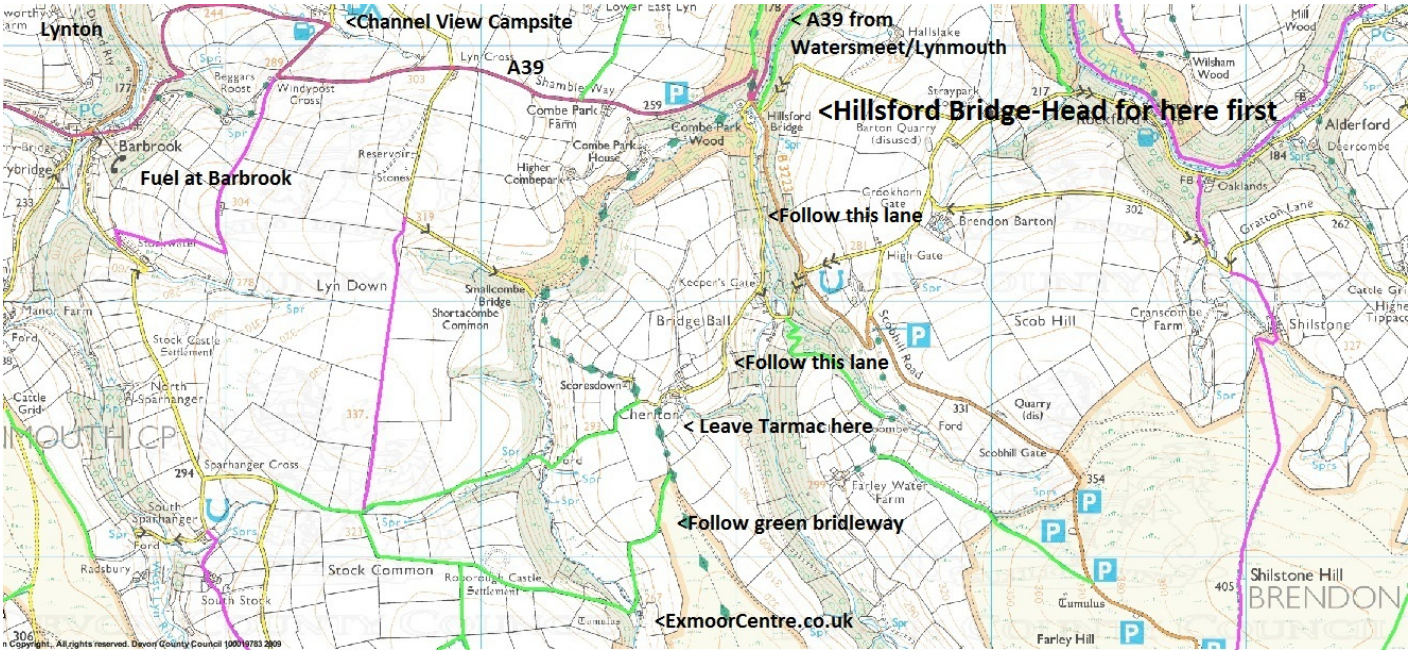
Access to The Exmoor Centre is up Cheriton Hill (see where it says ‘Take this lane’ above.

As you crest the hill you will see South Cheriton Farm on the left, shortly after the road widens slightly and there is room to park two cars on the right (heavy farm machinery passes regularly so don't abuse this).

Centre access is along the bridleway on the left, technically straight on as the road itself turns right.

The bridleway leads to open moorland and there is a choice of tracks, take the right hand one and follow for 100yds to the gateway that looks most used.

This accesses another bridleway that takes you down into the valley and through the ford to the centre.



Any problems phone me on 07532 264184,

Cheers
